Telford Electrician Sues Two Farmers To Recover $360

ONE DIVORCE ACTION

Two Richland Township Farmers Named Defendants In Action

DOYLESTOWN, June 4 — Three suits, one in which a Telford electrician is suing two Richland township farmers for $360; another in which a Plumstead township man is seeking a divorce, and the other in which a Quakertown section husband, who has been named the defendant in a divorce action, but has "not been found," have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas, here.

Two Richland township farmers, Michael Lew and Leon Kiebasinski, Quakertown, RD. have been named defendants in an action in assumption by Arthur L. Neal, 415 South Main street, Telford, who claims $360.15 with interest from May 21, 1948.

The complainant, who is an electrician, in a statement of claim in the office of Prothonotary Isaac S. Gross, alleges that he installed a new cooling compressor and motor and a new power line. He claims $119.20 for the installation of the power line.

Raymond A. Dodd, Carversville, has been named the defendant in an action in divorce by his wife, Margaret A. Dodd, Plumstead twp. They were married Sept. 12, 1931, in George Washington Memorial Episcopal Chapel, Valley Forge.

Robert E. Heitz, who has been named the defendant in a divorce suit by his wife, Cynthia L. Heitz, of the Quakertown area, has not been found by the Sheriff's office.

Mrs. Simpson Is Found Not Guilty By Court

DOYLESTOWN, June 4 — Mrs. Florence E. Simpson, Telford, real estate broker, charged with obtaining money under false pretense, who was tried without a jury before Judge Fred W. Davis, here, was found not guilty and the costs of prosecution were placed on the county by the Court.

Commenting on the case, Judge Davis said: "From the evidence the prosecutor, Elmer W. Kaucher, Philadelphia steeplejack, paid $750 in good faith and ought to have his money returned."

"Mrs. Simpson, the defendant; Mrs. Virginia Underkoffler, Sellersville, and her brother, William B. Leidolf, have all of that money. They are the people who should return it to the prosecutor."

"The district attorney's office might well look into the matter and the charge of fraudulent conversion as it applies to all of these three parties."

The case grew out of a real estate deal on September 25, 1947 when William Leidolf was attempting to buy five acres of land from Stanley Heilman, Hilltown township, for $2500 and hoped to sell four acres to the prosecutor, Elmer W. Kaucher, for $3400.

The defendant, Mrs. Simpson, was the real estate broker involved and received a $750 down payment from Kaucher. She testified she paid $500 to Mrs. Underkoffler and Leidolf and kept her commission of $250.

Members of Card Club Enjoy Dinner, Cards

Yardley Council Objects To New Public Laundry

YARDLEY, June 4 — An injunction to halt further construction of a public laundry on Main street, near Afton avenue, will be filed in Bucks County Court of Common Pleas Monday by Borough Solicitor Sidney T. Cadwallader.

The injunction is directed against Mr. and Mrs. Edward Garlits of Yardley, owners of the partially-constructed building. The borough contends that the structure, which is said to extend two feet over one edge of the sidewalk, constitutes an encroachment on the public's privilege use of the sidewalk.

Borough Council will borrow $800 from the Yardley National Bank to sustain its activities until tax returns accumulate in sufficient amounts.

Council will consider the problem of mosquito control for 1950. It was pointed out that the means was not at its disposal this year to take any action toward spraying areas in the borough where mosquitoes might breed.

FIRE SCHOOL TO RESUME

Fire school for Bristol firemen will open again on Monday and Wednesday evenings, Fire Chief Clifford Hagerman announced today. There will be two new instructors beginning Monday evening and all firemen are urged to attend at seven o'clock.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Three defendants in the trial of Communist leaders were sent to jail yesterday by Federal Judge Medina for contempt of court. The judge notified the members of defense counsel that he would take action against them later for persistent contempt in the twenty-week trial.

Senator Hickenlooper warned in Washington that "the possibility" of espionage cannot be discounted at all in the loss of some uranium-235 from a Chicago atomic laboratory.

The Northern Baptist Convention in San Francisco went on record as opposing "the present national policy of preparation for atomic war" and as strongly advocating continued civilian control of atomic research and development.

Six instances of false testimony were admitted by Whitaker Chambers as defense counsel strove to tear down his story that he had received State Department documents from Alger Hiss up to April, 1938.

In Paris the Big Four made definite progress on the Berlin issue, with a slight but important shift in the Soviet position reported. While in Berlin the Russian commandant, meeting with the three Western Governors for the first time in a year, answered "no" to everything

Calvary Baptist Church To Support Nichols Family In Brazilian Field

Tomorrow evening at 7:45 the Calvary Baptist Church will hold a farewell service for the first members of that congregation to be sent out as foreign missionaries. On Friday, June 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nichols, with their three children, Janis 1½, Lois 2½, and Timothy 4½, will embark on the steamer "Dennis" leaving Brooklyn, N. Y., for Brazil, where they will labor among the primitive Indians of the Amazon basin.

The church, through unsolicited gifts, has contributed $5000 for the initial expense of this missionary work, and has undertaken the responsibility of $200 per month to support the Nichols family members as they minister the Gospel in Brazil's jungles. The Rev. Lehman Strauss is pastor of Calvary Baptist Church. Testimonies and special music has been arranged. Pastor Strauss will deliver a charge to both the congregation and the missionary candidates.

Mr. Nichols, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nichols, Bath road, is a graduate of the Bristol High School. Mrs. Nichols is a native of Ohio and a graduate of Hinkley high school, Hinkley, O. Both Mr. and Mrs. Nichols are graduates of the Philadelphia School of the Bible and obtained post graduate missionary training in Chicago, Ill., and Chico, California.

Sunday will be "anniversary" day for Calvary in more respects than one. It will mark the 11th anniversary of establishment of the church; the 10th anniversary of the Rev. Mr. Strauss as pastor; and the first anniversary of completion of the new edifice.

DOYLESTOWN, June 4 — "I feel that the Palisades on the Bucks County side of the Delaware river, near Kintnersville, should be a part of Roosevelt Park," Thomas B. Stockham, Jr., of Morrisville, told the Bucks County realtors. Stockham presented Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of the Bucks County Public Schools, who showed more than 200 color slides on scenes in Bucks County.

Speaking to about 50 realtors, Mr. Stockham said: "Top Rock, which dominates the palisades, is more than 400 feet above the winding river and canal and affords a majestic view of New Jersey and Easton. It is the most photographed spot in the county."

"This scenic spot is now on private property and there is no way to enjoy it except by trespassing over private owned land. There is nothing to prevent the present owner from building a hot dog stand or anything else he wants in connection with this incomparable, high, rocky bluff which rises from the famed River road drive several hundred feet beneath," Mr. Stockham said.

TRIAL OF MOTHER FOR DEATH OF BABY IS LISTED FOR TUES.

Miss Pearl Ruth Tarantino, of Near Quakertown, to Enter Plea

NO TRIAL BY JURY

Two Judges Will Determine Woman's Guilt, It Is Said

DOYLESTOWN, June 4 — The case of the Commonwealth against Miss Pearl Ruth Tarantino, 22, of Shelly, California road, Quakertown RD 2, charged with the murder of her illegitimate child, and concealing the death of the child, is listed for a plea Tuesday morning in the Bucks county criminal court before President Judge Hiram H. Keller and Judge Fred W. Davis, of Monroe county.

Although the unwed mother is charged with murder, it is not likely that the court will adjudge her guilty of either first or second degree murder, or voluntary manslaughter. Mental tests have been made in Miss Tarantino's case, and the degree of her guilt will be left entirely up to the two jurists. There will be no jury trial.

Under the law she could be found guilty of involuntary manslaughter and concealing the birth of a bastard child.

Miss Tarantino was arrested last January after she had concealed for eight days, the birth of her child. Her arrest took place at the Quakertown Community Hospital where she had been a patient since January.

Wollard-Boyle Wedding Is Performed At St. Mark's

A trio of young women attended the bride, and a like number of young men attended the bridegroom, when the Wollard-Boyle wedding was solemnized in St. Mark's R. C. Church at 10 o'clock this morning. The Rev. Albert Glass united in matrimony Miss Ellen Teresa Boyle, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Boyle, 229 Madison street, and Mr. James Wollard, son of Mrs. Grace Wollard, Buckley street. Escorting the bride to St. Mark's altar was her uncle, Mr. Donald McCarry, of Ashley, as Miss Katherine Keating, organist, of Linden street, provided a bridal march.

The maid of honor, Miss Joan Boyle, sister of the bride, as well as the bridesmaids, Miss Jean McElvaine and Mrs. Robert Clendening, Radcliffe street, were attired in embroidered white starched organdy over yellow, the gowns being floor-length and appliqued. They wore fresh yellow rose-buds in their hair; short white mitts, white slippers, and carried yellow roses set off with green bows.

The bride looked attractive in imported white Swiss organdy, this being floor length, appliqued with self material, and having detachable sleeves. With this was worn a net veil and cap, studded with clusters of orange blossoms. The bride carried a white prayer book on which rested gardenias, the shower effect being carried out with bouvardia.

The reception is scheduled for Ye Olde Delaware House, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wollard will leave for the Pocono Mountains, there to remain for 10 days. For travelling Mrs. Wollard has chosen a navy blue suit, matching felt hat, both trimmed in white pique; and a gardenia corsage. Their place of residence will be on Buckley street.

Attire for Mrs. Boyle, mother of the bride, for the ceremony was a gown of toast lace, brown accessories, and yellow rose-bud corsage. Mrs. Wollard, mother of the bridegroom, selected a navy blue dress, natural straw hat with blue trim, and white carnations for a corsage.

"Where are the nine?" (Luke 17:17)

Jesus asked this question after he had cleansed ten lepers, and only one returned to say, "Thank you." We feel that the nine who failed to return for some expression of love to the Lord Jesus were certainly ungrateful indeed. Ten had been blessed. Ten had been lepers, and by the command of Christ, as they went, they were cleansed of that awful dreaded disease. They knew that they were doomed by that loathsome leprosy to a sure death. They were well acquainted with the fact that men could offer no assistance. But Christ had stepped in, had completely healed them that day. Yet were not sufficiently thankful to express themselves. God does want us to thank Him after He has saved us. One of the ways we can say, "thank you" to the Lord is by living clean, consistent Christian lives. Another way of thanking the Lord is by daily witnessing to others about the Lord Jesus.

Dear Vets:

This year the V.F.W. is celebrating its Golden Jubilee. Post No. 5542 here in Bristol is celebrating, too, with a greatly enlarged program of activities ranging from athletics to... well, if there's a demand for it, we'll start giving lessons in zither playing.

Seriously though, we have a fine group of fellows who fought with you overseas to put the damper on would-be world dictators. We have a beautiful club house, activities of every description and, what is highly important, an effective plan to work for the good of veterans, of the community and of the nation.

Yours for comradeship,

BARBETTA'S SLAM WINS 4TH STRAIGHT FOR ST. ANN'S NINE

TRENTON, June 4 — "Bert" Barbetta's grand slam clout in the fourth straight win of the Trenton Industrial League last evening on Wetzel field and enabled the Bristol boys to take second place in the league standing. The "Saints" beat the Micharski nine, 9-5, for the third time this season.

The "Saints" were trailing, 5-4, when Barbetta stepped to the plate with Palumbo, Klein, and Ciabella on base. He drove the ball 350 feet over the centerfield fence for the home run.

"Johnny" Franks, who is improving every game behind the plate for the Wood Streeters, hit a homer over the right field fence in the second inning with the bases bare. Franks also had two singles to his credit.

On the hill for the winners was "Bill" McGerr who recently returned from a try-out in three strikeouts. McGerr had three strikes, two walks and was aided by fine fielding on the part of his mates. McGerr made the only error charged to the winners.

Micharski's used two moundsmen. "Johnny" Zeis started and gave way to "Pats" Werner in the fourth inning. Koenig had three for four for the Trenton team.

American League is leading the Trenton loop with 9 and 3 with one game won and lost. St. Ann's has won six and lost three while the Micharski team has won seven and lost five.

St. Ann's will play on Memorial field on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Mother's Trial for Death of Child is Listed for Tuesday

ary 5, the day the child was born. The prosecutor is Trooper Frederick Christman, of the Quakertown sub-station of State Police.

State Police said—after Miss Tarantino's arrest—that the child was alive when it was abandoned in a field near her home.

Miss Tarantino has been and will be represented in court Tuesday morning by Attorneys John P. Betz, Jr., of Bristol, and Emanuel H. Klein, of Quakertown, who were appointed by the court, to represent the accused young woman.

Miss Tarantino recently underwent a complete psychiatric examination, the results of which will probably be stated before the court Tuesday, and will be taken into consideration, when the degree of guilty is pronounced.

The Commonwealth will be represented by District Attorney Edward G. Biester and Assistant District Attorney Willard Curtin.

There will be a session of miscellaneous civil court Monday morning, and miscellaneous Quarter Sessions court on Tuesday.

5TH WARD WINS OVER FRANKLIN BY SCORE OF 10-6

Fifth Ward Sporting Club beat Franklin A. C., 10-6, in a Suburban Softball League contest last evening on Leedom's field. The Warders had the lead from the start and kept it throughout the entire contest.

Paul Paolillo was the winning hurler with the defeat going to Gerome. Paolillo allowed six hits while Gerome was nipped for 8.

Danny Paglione, "Pete" Mancini, and "Mike" Spinelli had two hits each in the contest. Both of Paolione's blows were triples. Of the winners' eight hits, five were for extra bases.

Three consecutive errors on a trio of batsmen followed by a hit by "Johnny" Cordasco gave the Warders three runs in the fourth which clinched the game.

Telford Electrician Sues Two Farmers To Recover $360

ONE DIVORCE ACTION

Two Richland Township Farmers Named Defendants in Action

DOYLESTOWN, June 4—Three suits, one in which a Telford electrician is suing two Richland township farmers for $360; another in which a Plumstead township man is seeking a divorce, and the other in which a Quakertown section husband, who has been named the defendant in a divorce action, but has "not been found," have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas, here.

Two Richland township farmers, Michael Lew and Leon Kiebasinski, Quakertown, RD. have been named defendants in an action in summary judgment by Arthur L. Neal, 415 South Main street, Telford, who claims $360.15 with interest from May 21, 1948.

The complainant, who is an electrician, in a statement of claim in the office of Prothonotary Isaac S. Gross, alleges that he installed a new cooling compressor and motor and a new power line. He claims $119.29 for the installation of the power line.

Raymond A. Dodd, Carversville, has been named the defendant in an action in divorce by his wife, Marguerite A. Dodd, Plumstead twp. They were married Sept. 12, 1931, in George Washington Memorial Episcopal Chapel, Valley Forge.

Robert E. Heitz, who has been named the defendant in a divorce suit by his wife, Cynthia L. Heitz, of the Quakertown area, has not been found by the Sheriff's office.

Mrs. Simpson Is Found Not Guilty By Court

DOYLESTOWN, June 4—Mrs. Florence E. Simpson, Telford, real estate broker, charged with obtaining money under false pretense, who was tried without a jury before Judge Fred W. Davis, here, was found not guilty and the costs of prosecution were placed on the county by the Court.

Commenting on the case, Judge Davis said: "From the evidence the prosecutor, Elmer W. Kaucher, Philadelphia steepjack, paid $750 in good faith and ought to have his money returned."

"Mrs. Simpson, the defendant, Mrs. Virginia Underkoffler, Sellersville, and her brother, William B. Leidolf, have all of that money. They are the people who should return it to the prosecutor."

"The district attorney's office might well look into the matter and the charge of fraudulent conversion as it applies to all of these three parties."

The case grew out of a real estate deal on September 25, 1947 when William Leidolf was attempting to buy five acres of land from Stanley Heilmann, Hilltown township, for $2500 and hoped to sell four acres to the prosecutor, Elmer W. Kaucher, for $3400.

The defendant, Mrs. Simpson, was the real estate broker involved and received a $750 down payment from Kaucher. She testified she paid $500 to Mrs. Underkoffler and Leidolf and kept her commission of $250.

Members of Card Club Enjoy Dinner, Cards

Members of a local card club celebrated their final meeting by having dinner at Cornwells Heights on Wednesday evening. The group then returned to Bristol and played pinocchio at the home of Mrs. William McDonnell, Bath road.

Those enjoying the affair: Mrs. Charles Milnor, Mrs. Harry Hughes, Mrs. Wesley Subers, Mrs. George Bailey, Mrs. William Vetter, Mrs. Carl Vetter, Sr., Miss Ann McDonnell and Mrs. McDonnell. Prizes were given to Mrs. William Vetter and Miss McDonnell. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

TO GRADUATE MONDAY

George Molden, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Molden, of 147 Otter street, will graduate with a B. S. degree on Monday in ceremonies to be held on Ursinus College's Patterson Field. Mr. Molden is a biology major and has been active in Sigma Rho Lambda fraternity. He plans to study mortuary science at graduate school.

Yardley Council Objects To New Public Laundry

YARDLEY, June 4—An injunction to halt further construction of a public laundry on Main street, near Afion avenue, will be filed in Bucks County Court of Common Pleas Monday by Borough Solicitor Sidney T. Cadwallader.

The injunction is directed against Mr. and Mrs. Edward Garlits of Yardley, owners of the partially-constructed building. The borough contends that the structure, which is said to extend two feet over one edge of the sidewalk, constitutes an encroachment on the public's privilege use of the sidewalk.

Borough Council will borrow $800 from the Yardley National Bank to sustain its activities until tax returns accumulate in sufficient amounts.

Council will consider the problem of mosquito control for 1950. It was pointed out that the means was not at its disposal this year to take any action toward spraying areas in the borough where mosquitoes might breed.

FIRE SCHOOL TO RESUME

Fire school for Bristol firemen will open again on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Fire Chief Clifford Hagerman announced today. There will be two new instructors beginning Monday evening and all firemen are urged to attend at seven o'clock.

URGES PALISADES BE MADE PART OF ROOSEVELT PARK

Thomas B. Stockham, Jr., Addresses Bucks County Realtors

Chas. H. Boehm is Another Speaker at Recent Meeting

DOYLESTOWN, June 4—"I feel that the Palisades on the Bucks County side of the Delaware river, near Kintnersville, should be a part of Roosevelt Park," Thomas B. Stockham, Jr., of Morrisville, told the Bucks County realtors. Stockham presented Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of the Bucks County Public Schools, who showed more than 200 color slides on scenes in Bucks County.

Speaking to about 50 realtors, Mr. Stockham said: "Top Rock, which dominates the palisades, is more than 400 feet above the winding river and canal and affords a majestic view of New Jersey and Easton. It is the most photographed spot in the county."

"This scenic spot is now on private property and there is no way to enjoy it except by trespassing over private owned land. There is nothing to prevent the present owner from building a hot dog stand or anything else he wants to in connection with this incomparable, high, rocky bluff which rises from the famed River road drive several hundred feet beneath," Mr. Stockham said.

TO BID MISSIONARIES FAREWELL AT SERVICE

"ANNIVERSARY" DAY

Tomorrow evening at 7:45 the Calvary Baptist Church will hold a farewell service for the first members of that congregation to be sent out as foreign missionaries. On Friday, June 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nichols, with their three children, Janis 1½, Lois 2½, and Timothy 1½, will embark on the steamer "Dennis" leaving Brooklyn, N. Y., for Brazil, where they will labor among the primitive Indians of the Amazon basin.

The church, through unsolicited gifts, has contributed $500 for the initial expense of this missionary work, and has undertaken the responsibility of $200 per month to support the Nichols family members as they minister the Gospel in Brazil's jungles. The Rev. Lehman Strauss is pastor of Calvary Baptist Church. Testimonies and special music has been arranged. Pastor Strauss will deliver a charge to both the congregation and the missionary candidates.

Mr. Nichols, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nichols, Bath road, is a graduate of the Bristol High School. Mrs. Nichols is a native of Ohio and a graduate of Hinkley high school, Hinkley, O. Both Mr. and Mrs. Nichols are graduates of the Philadelphia School of the Bible and obtained post graduate missionary training in Chicago, Ill., and Chico, California.

Sunday will be "anniversary" day for Calvary in more respects than one. It will mark the 11th anniversary of establishment of the church; the 10th anniversary of the Rev. Mr. Strauss as pastor; and the first anniversary of completion of the new edifice.

Welcome Pastor To Cornwells Church

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, June 4—A reception was arranged for the Rev. and Mrs. Thornton Lobb and son, David, by the W. S. C. S. of Cornwells Methodist Church in the social hall on Thursday evening. Hymns were sung by members of the choir. Mrs. Barkley Baldwin was the pianist. A vocal selection was rendered by the Rev. Herman Doh, of Andalusia Baptist Church. Mrs. Russell Jones was the accompanist.

Representatives of each department were introduced and each in turn welcomed the new pastor. They were: Samuel Mudge for the trustees; Mrs. Carl Rutledge for the W. S. C. S.; Mrs. Robert Mudge for the Sunday School; Mrs. Barkley Baldwin for the choir. Special guests who greeted Mr. Lobb were: the Rev. Albert Lewing, Episcopal Church of the Redeemer; Mr. Doh and Mr. Vandegrift, Bensalem Methodist. Refreshments were served to 75.

TRIAL OF MOTHER FOR DEATH OF BABY IS LISTED FOR TUES.

Miss Pearl Ruth Tarantino, of Near Quakertown, to Enter Plea

NO TRIAL BY JURY

Two Judges Will Determine Woman's Guilt, It Is Said

DOYLESTOWN, June 4—The case of the Commonwealth against Miss Pearl Ruth Tarantino, 22, of Shelly, California road, Quakertown RD. 2, charged with the murder of her illegitimate child, and concealing the death of the child, is listed for a plea Tuesday morning in the Bucks county criminal court before President Judge Hiram H. Keller and Judge Fred W. Davis, of Monroe county.

Although the unwed mother is charged with murder, it is not likely that the court will adjudge her guilty of either first or second degree murder, or voluntary manslaughter. Mental tests have been made in Miss Tarantino's case, and the degree of her guilt will be left entirely up to the two jurists. There will be no jury trial.

Under the law she could be found guilty of involuntary manslaughter and concealing the birth of a bastard child.

Miss Tarantino was arrested last January after she had concealed for eight days, the birth of her child. Her arrest took place at the Quakertown Community Hospital where she had been a patient since January.

Urges Palsades Be Made Part of Roosevelt Park
"I think this most important right-seeing spot in the county ought to become a part of the park to make sure its future protection and safety from being commercialized and falling into the hands of the wrong type of property owners," County Superintendent Boehm, who showed more than 200 color slides on Bucks county's industries, homes, schools, churches, architecture, streams, historical spots and practically every phase of life in the county, delighted the realtors.
"One of the hardest things to do was to find a worm fence so that we could show the school children what a worm fence looked like," said County Superintendent Boehm, who admitted that he and assistants had to set it up a bit because it had fallen apart.
A new member, John Wright, of New Hope, was welcomed. Past Presidents William A. Rositter, Langhorne, and William H. Fetter, Morrisville, who are revising the constitution, made a report.
Charles W. Hupp reported that a complaint concerning a certain type of advertising has been reported to the national board.

A trio of young women attended the bride, and a like number of young men attended the bridegroom, when the Wollard-Boyle wedding was solemnized in St. Mark's R. C. Church at 10 o'clock this morning. The Rev. Albert Glass united in matrimony Miss Ellen Teresa Boyle, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Boyle, 229 Madison street, and Mr. James Wollard, son of Mrs. Grace Wollard, Buckley street. Escorting the bride to St. Mark's altar was her uncle, Mr. Donald McCarty, of Ashley, as Miss Katherine Keating, organist, of Linden street, provided a bridal march.

The maid of honor, Miss Joan Boyle, sister of the bride, as well as the bridesmaids, Miss Jean McIlvaine and Mrs. Robert Clendenen, Radcliffe street, were attired in emerald green and white. The bride wore a long white gown, and the bridesmaids wore yellow, the gowns being floor-length and appliqued. They wore fresh yellow rose-buds in their hair; short white mitts, white slippers, and carried yellow roses set off with green bows.

The bride looked attractive in imported white Swiss organdy, this being floor length, appliqued with self material, and having detachable sleeves. With this was worn a net veil and cap, studded with clusters of orange blossoms. The bride carried a white prayer book on which rested gardenias, the shower effect being carried out with bouvardia.

Men in the party included: Mr. Joseph Boyle, Cedar street, brother of the bride, as best man; Mr. Leonard Dugan, P. 1st township, and Mr. Leo Duffy, Pine street, as ushers.

The reception is scheduled for Ye Olde Delaware House, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wollard will leave for the Pocono Mountains, there to remain for 10 days. For travelling Mrs. Wollard has chosen a navy blue suit, matching felt hat, both trimmed in white pique; and a gardenia corsage. Their place of residence will be on Buckley street.

Attire for Mrs. Boyle, mother of the bride, for the ceremony was a gown of toast lace, brown accessories, and yellow rose-bud corsage. Mrs. Wollard, mother of the bridegroom, selected a navy blue dress, natural straw hat with blue trim, and white carnations for a corsage.

INTERESTING items of news mainly about people you know. A chronicle of the activities of the people of Bristol; their goings and comings. ---

Dear Vets:

This year the V.F.W. is celebrating its Golden Jubilee. Post No. 5542 here in Bristol is celebrating, too, with a greatly enlarged program of activities ranging from athletics to . . . well, if there's a demand for it, we'll start giving lessons in either playing.

Seriously though, we have a fine group of fellows who fought with you overseas to put the damper on would-be world dictators. We have a beautiful club house, activities of every description and, what is highly important, an effective plan to work for the good of veterans, of the community and of the nation.

Yours for comradeship,

"Where are the nine?" (Luke 11:17)

Jesus asked this question after he had cleansed ten lepers, and only one returned to say, "Thank you." We feel that the nine who failed to return for some expression of love to the Lord Jesus were certainly ungrateful indeed. Ten had been blessed. Ten had been lepers, and by the command of Christ, as they went, they were cleansed of that awful dreaded disease. They knew that they were doomed by that loathsome leprosy to a sure death. They were well acquainted with the fact that men could offer no assistance. But Christ had stepped in, had completely healed them that day. Yet were not sufficiently thankful to express themselves. God does want us to thank Him after He has saved us. One of the ways we can say, "thank you" to the Lord is by living clean consistent Christian lives. Another way of thanking the Lord is by daily witnessing to others about the Lord Jesus.

BARBETTA'S SLAM WINS 4TH STRAIGHT FOR ST. ANN'S NINE

TRENTON, June 4 — "Bert" Barbetta's grand slam clout in the fourth straight win of the Trenton Industrial League last evening on Wetzel field and enabled the Bristol boys to take second place in the league standing. The "Saints" beat the Michalski nine, 9-5, for the third time this season.

The "Saints" were trailing, 5-4, when Barbetta stepped to the plate with Palumbo, Klein, and Claletta on base. He drove the ball 350 feet over the centerfield fence for the home run.

"Johnny" Franks, who is improving every game behind the plate for the Wood Streeters, hit a homer over the right field fence in the second inning with the bases bare. Franks also had two singles to his credit.

On the hill for the winners was "Bill" McGerr who recently returned after a try-out in North Carolina. McGerr had three strikeouts and three walks and was aided by fine fielding on the part of his mates. McGerr made the only error charged to the winners.

Michalski's used two moundmen. "Johnny" Zies started and gave way to "Fats" Werner in the fourth inning. Koenig had three for four for the Trenton team.

American Steel is leading the Trenton loop with 9 and 3 with one game under protest. St. Ann's has won six and lost three while the Michalski team has won seven and lost five.

St. Ann's will play on Memorial field on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

JEFFERSON A. C. HITS 2 HURLERS OFF MOUND

Jefferson A. C. blasted two St. Ann's hurlers for 12 hits last evening on Memorial Park field as it scored a 12-5 triumph over the "Saints" in a Suburban League game.

Leader of the batting assault was Albert Giambelli who rapped out four singles in four trips to the plate.

The two St. Ann's moundmen were "Jimmy" Brescia and "Moonie" Denny. Brescia started and was the losing pitcher. Jefferson scored six runs in the first on a walk to Peltz, singles by DeLisa and Giambelli, another walk to Ed Hunter, singles by Vic Cauti and Imperato and a two-bagger from the bat of "Johnny" Giambelli.

5TH WARD WINS OVER FRANKLIN BY SCORE OF 10-6

Fifth Ward Sporting Club beat Franklin A. C. 10-6, in a Suburban Softball League contest last evening on Leedom's field. The Warders had the lead from the start and kept it throughout the entire contest.

Paul Paolillo was the winning hurler with the defeat going to Jerome. Paolillo allowed six hits while Jerome was nicked for 8.

Danny Paglione, "Pete" Mancini, and "Mike" Spinelli had two hits each in the contest. Both of Paglione's blows were triples. Of the winners' eight hits, five were for extra bases.

Three consecutive errors on a trio of batsmen followed by a hit by "Johnny" Cordasco gave the Warders three runs in the fourth which clinched the game.

GET ORGANIZED

CHICAGO—(INS)—The Council of State Governments reports that at least seven states have set up committees to study state governmental functions patterned after the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government headed by Herbert Hoover.

PLAYS BUTLER

HOLLYWOOD—(INS)—Eric von Stroheim is celebrating his 40th year as a top movie name playing a butler in "Sunset Boulevard." The Austrian-born actor is famed for his portrayal of Prussian officers and this is the first time he ever has played a domestic.
